Tornabuoni Art Gallery taking its Boetti to Hong Kong

Published on 14 May 2012.

Paris, 11 May 2012, Art Media Agency (AMA).

The Tornabuoni Art Gallery in Paris announced which works would be displayed for its first participation in Art HK. It will display a retrospective dedicated to Italian artist Alighiero Boetti, an important figure in the Arte povera movement.

The gallery will significantly be displaying display the largest Mappa by the artist, more than six meters long. Mappa are embroidered world maps produced by Afghan and Pakistani artists under supervision by Alighiero Boetti from 1972 to 1994, the year he died. The series Mimetici ("Camouflage", 1967-68), Biro (Ball Pens, 1972-1994), Tutto (80s-90s), and Postali ("postal envelopes", 1970-75) also feature among the other series brought to Hong Kong by Tornabuoni.

Alighiero Boetti is currently the subject of a touring exhibition. After the Reina Sofia in Madrid and the Tate Modern in London, it will be on display at the MoMA of New York, from 1 July to 1 October 2012. Tornabuoni Art Gallery has loaned several works for this exhibition.
