

BLOUIN ARTINFO

IN THE AIR
Art News & Gossip

Tornabuoni Art Breaks Sales Record Hours Into Basel

By Anneliese Cooper

Though Art Basel in Miami Beach just opened its preview this morning, Paris gallery Tornabuoni Art has already made some noteworthy sales. “We’ve sold two works by Paolo Scheggi, one of which sold for more than the previous world record (608,000 Euros) set by the Dorotheum Galerie, Vienna in May 2014, (Zone riflesse, 1965),” said gallery founder Michele Casamonti in an e-mail. A large painting by Agostino Bonalumi titled “Blu,” 1972 (pictured below), was also purchased, and an additional Scheggi work was reserved.

